OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE GREAT WAR

MILITARY OPERATIONS
TOGOLAND AND THE CAMEROONS

This volume tells a story of warfare in swamp and forest that has few parallels in history.

An interesting description of the country, amply illustrated, introduces the reader to a region little known before 1914. The mountainous part of the Cameroons possesses features of great beauty, and a moderate climate, but the coastal area is one of the most pestilential known.

The clear-cut conquest of Togoland is followed by the more complicated operations in the larger colony. In the first days of the campaign, while the military forces were making their preparations, the Navy played the major part and throughout all the subsequent operations added valuable support to the troops on land, besides conducting a close blockade of the coast.

The narrative describes how our West African soldiers from Sierra Leone, Nigeria, the Gold Coast, and the Gambia nobly sustained the highest traditions of our armed forces. Step by step the volume traces the course of events: the German preparations at Duala and the surrender of that important place; the capture of Jabassi, Edea, Victoria, and Buea; the operations up the northern railway; the German attack upon the French at Edea; the operations in the north; the first unsuccessful advance and the final drive of converging columns upon Yaunde. With the fall of this place and the retreat of the enemy into Spanish Muni some six weeks later, the campaign came to a triumphant end.
